Triton College's Library Offering Asynchronous Language Learning Lab

Learn a New Language at Triton College

RIVER GROVE – Ready to learn Italian, French, German, Spanish or English? Triton College's Library is offering a free asynchronous language learning lab using the Mango Languages database. Located in the Triton College Library Classroom (Room A-215), the lab is available to students and community members, beginning Tuesday, Aug. 27, and continuing the second and fourth Tuesdays in October and November, with the last gathering scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 10. Each event will be held at 2 p.m., in the Library classroom (A Building, Room A-215).

"The Triton College Library is very excited to invite community members to campus to learn a new language," said Shekinah Lawrence, Triton College Library chairperson. "Participants can work at their own pace. English is also an option," added Lawrence, adding that the Mango Languages database can be accessed remotely. Link available on the Triton Library website.

Representatives from Triton College's Adult Education and Continuing Education will be on hand to answer questions about extended language and learning opportunities. Triton College offers courses in English as a Second Language (ESL), as well as the State of Illinois High School Diploma course and more. Triton's School of Continuing Education provides high-quality professional and personal continuing education opportunities for learners of all ages.
