

Kevin Bor
Chicago Police Department Detective
Class of 1986

How has Triton College made an impact on your life?

Triton College provided me an accessible and affordable opportunity to a college education and athletic scholarship. I fondly remember my instructors and coaches, especially Professor R.P. Anderson, legendary football head coach Ed Yonkus and those who gave me guidance and employment at Triton's Learning Resource Center. The education, foundation and opportunity provided to me by Triton College are those I use today in my occupation and life.

Biography

Kevin J. Bor is a 27-year veteran of the Chicago Police Department, currently assigned as a detective in the Financial Crimes Unit. He attended Triton College from 1982-84, graduating with an Associate of Arts Degree. Mr. Bor was a member of Triton's football team, earning NJCAA All-American honors. He went on to earn an athletic scholarship to attend Missouri State University in Springfield Mo. While at MSU, he earned All-Conference honors as well as an All-American honorable mention. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree from MSU with academic honors.

Mr. Bor says his decision to attend Triton College "changed the direction of his life," crediting faculty and coaches for helping him to build the foundation to become a better student and athlete.

Mr. Bor currently lives in Chicago with his wife Olivia.