Triton College Women Tell Their Stories

The Triton College Library Will Highlight Five Employees

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – In honor of Women’s History Month, the Triton College Library is hosting “Triton Women Tell Their Stories.”

Five Triton College women will be sharing their stories on camera in the Triton College Library Upper Commons, from March 27-31, at 10 a.m. The Triton community is invited to be inspired by these women in person or watch them on YouTube.

- Monday, March 27 – Dr. Dubravka Juraga, Triton College Library Chairperson
- Tuesday, March 28 – Mary Douglas-Pieniazek, Early Childhood Administration Student
- Wednesday, March 29 – Gail Krahenbuhl, English Faculty
- Thursday, March 30 – Maryann Pisano, Staff Writer, Triton College
- Friday, March 31 – Susan Rohde, Director of Professional Development

Triton librarian Alex Gutierrez was influenced to bring the idea to campus after learning that the National Women’s History Alliance’s theme for 2023 was “Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories.” The National Women’s History Alliance spearheaded the movement for March being declared National Women’s History Month.
