Triton College Embarking on Alumni Oral History Project

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – The Triton College Archives is embarking on an Alumni Oral History Project! The goal of the project is to see how Triton has impacted the lives of many alumni.

Alumni will be asked questions pertaining to their time at Triton, including their previous goals, hobbies and how they spent their free time while students at Triton.

Besides the Alumni Oral History Project, the Archives is also hoping to identify people and events by going through thousands of pictures, taken during the 1960s to the 2000s. The Archives is hoping alumni (or faculty and staff) will schedule in-person or online appointments to identify the people in these photos.

“We hope our alumni get the satisfaction in knowing their efforts are helping us make these archival materials more accessible to the Triton community and to the public,” said Leah Lestina, reference librarian and archivist. “We also want our alumni and the Triton community to know that our Archives are here for them to visit and use!”

To participate in the project, call (708) 456-0300, Ext. 3406, or email leahlestina@triton.edu.
